6. CLAIMS MATTERS

A. Consideration of Additions to Defense Counsel

After PLAN JPA membership completed a satisfaction survey with the PLAN JPA Defense Counsel Panel in 2020, the Claims Committee appointed an Ad Hoc Committee, consisting of Kathleen Kane, Robert Schultz, and Donald Larkin, to review the results of the survey and discuss attorneys be added to the panel. The Claims Committee approved attorneys Suzanne Nicholson and Ray Bangle.

Susan DeNardo informed the Committee the PLAN JPA Litigation Management team had been informed of the future retirement of two members on the Defense Counsel Panel List. The Litigation Management team reviewed the 2020 Panel and determined there is a need for additional qualified attorneys with expertise in defending public entities in civil rights cases.

Discussion ensued around the fact that attorneys are hard to come by due to the max rate PLAN JPA has in place for their attorney panel. It was suggested to implement a bifurcated rate for attorneys, to which the Committee was receptive. Additionally, it was recommended to do a Request for Proposal (RFP) to obtain information from various firms, particularly in regard to specialist attorneys. The Committee agreed for Ms. DeNardo to do some more research, do an RFP, and bring forward a bifurcated rate for future consideration.

Agenda Item 6.A

CLAIMS MATTERS

SUBJECT: Review of PRAXIS Audit Results

BACKGROUND AND HISTORY:

PLAN JPA sought out coverage from Public Risk Innovation, Solution, and Management (PRISM) to replace the potentially eroded $5 million excess of $25 million Arch Insurance layer for liability claims retroactively from July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2021. PRISM agreed to cover PLAN JPA members with the inception date of July 1, 2020.

To obtain coverage and as part of the agreement with PRISM, PLAN JPA agreed to an audit of its open liability claims by PRISM. Tim Vincent of PRAXIS conducted the audit reviewing 51 files this month. While PRISM found PLAN JPA claims were being handled appropriately, there were eight claims with noted areas needing improvement. The areas noted included timely and consistent reporting per Plan guidelines, proper documentation of file activity in file notes, proactive handling of claims to move claims to resolution, and timely response to management questions/direction.

Jill Petrarca, Sedgwick Third Party Administrator (TPA) Lead, has reviewed the audit results along with PLAN JPA's Litigation Management team. Ms. Petrarca is meeting with examiners on a weekly basis to assist them in bringing their claim files current and within PLAN JPA standards. Staff is confident the deficiencies noted will be corrected and maintained.
